

Three Former Summer Associates Join Foster Swift

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

December 7, 2021

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. —Foster Swift welcomes new associates Anthony M. Dalimonte, Jim W. Scales and Mariah M. Silverstein to the firm. All three are members of Foster Swift’s litigation practice group.

At a time when most firms cancelled their summer programs due to the severity of the pandemic, all three participated remotely as Foster Swift summer associates at the firm in the summer of 2020.

All three were sworn in at the Michigan Supreme Court in Lansing on Tuesday, November 16.

An alumni of Wayne State University Law School, Dalimonte practices from the firm’s Southfield office where his experience includes conducting legal research and drafting memos, briefs, and dispositive motions on matters concerning general and commercial litigation.

Scales is based in the Grand Rapids office. He is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame Law School and his experience includes appeals briefs, wrongful death, contract breaches, personal injury, probate estates, employment matters and religious liberty & religious organizations.

Silverstein is based in the firm’s Lansing office. She received both her undergrad and law degree from the University of Michigan and her experience includes conducting legal research and drafting motions for criminal and civil cases in both state and federal court.
